

Dear Hiring Manager,

I was referred to your Front End Developer position from Indeed.com. I am a Front-End Web Developer and I am very excited by the opportunity to work with you on exciting projects. I would love to contribute my skills and experience to directly affect the growth of your company and be a part of your team so we could build fully interactive responsive websites to satisfy your users needs.

My experiences include working as a Front-End Developer for Samtrans and Caltrain. My accomplishments include developing both Samtrans and Caltrain website into responsive sites by utilizing Bootstrap, Grunt, LESS, and AJAX.

My other accomplishments include:

- Integration of the Google Maps API and 511.org API to automate the task of updating the schedules of both the bus routes and train stations*
- Scripting reusable code that would automate the task of updating content on other pages and widgets*
- Redesigning the UI/UX of the schedules template for both Samtrans and Caltrain improving the user experience*

I think my skills and experience is an excellent match with what you are seeking, and I like the opportunity to meet with you and talk more about the Front End Developer position and the value I can bring to this position. I look forward to hearing from you soon and thank you for your time and consideration.

*Sincerely,
David Thanphilom
